Note contd

Purnananda Saraswati Swamigalu has again addressed the Dewan stating that he has since made over his Matt building at Benares to the Sri Sringeri Matt who has agreed to take it. The Swamigalu requests that some allowance might be sanctioned from the State or some nice allowance might be granted from H.H. the Maharaja's Chattram at Benares.

The Swamigalu saw me the other day. It appears to be that of the time of the Mogul Emperor. Akbar gifted the Matt building on Hanuman Ghat at Benares for Sanyasis to live in, that no grants are made for feeding people resorting thereto & that the Swamigalu maintains himself with the bounty of Charitable persons.

He says that if some rice allce is given to him from the Chatram at Benares, the object of the Grant will not be defeated as some persons will be actually fed in the Matt from the provisions received from the Chatram where also feeding is to be conducted.

It will be seen from the preceding parts of this note why it is difficult to make any allowance to the petitioning Swami out of the funds of H.H. the Maharaja's Chatram at Benares. The Swami who has since come to the Mysore State on a tour has been again pressing for some help as he has no permanent income of any kind for conducting Nityakarles in his Matt at Benares.

He seems to be a very worthy person and it does not seem unsuitable to give him a small allowance to enable him to feed Brahmins in his Matt in Benares. At the Benares Chatram maintained by this State Rs 798 are spent on Establishment and Rs 853 on feeding and yet it is complained that it is insufficient for feeding 25 persons regularly every day.
As a matter of fact so many as 25
persons are not actually fed now.
It would not be improper I think to arrange that provisions sufficient to feed 2 Brahmins every day in the Matt, may be given out of the feeding allotment of the Chatram. To avoid inconvenience and trouble and

I understand that some Nehmidars (Natives of Mysore) get a permanent allowance of rice & Condiments from the Maharaja's Chatram at Benares. If so, please let me see the references.

Returned to the 2nd Commissioner.

Submitted 14/4/08

There are no Mysoreans who are Nehmidars drawing allowances from the Benares Chatram. One Krishnaiah native of Chittoor was given an allowance of Rs 16 per mensem for himself and his wife for about 2 years from 1904-05 and that allowance has been stopped from May 1906. I have submitted his case in another file today. That allowance has been recommended to be discontinued for reasons explained. As the man's character does not appear to be very satisfactory.

Orders are solicited on the prayer of Purna Kanta Sarma for some help from the Bhanga Charitable-
